FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

"I consider everything as a loss, because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him...depending on faith to know him and the power of his resurrection, and sharing in his sufferings by being conformed to his death. I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it."

As we continue our Lenten journey, the goal of the resurrection looms even closer. We know well that there are many obstacles and barriers, and Paul's vision clarifies for us once again our goal. I might ask myself again 'how well do I know Jesus?'

Surely not as well as He knows me. I might think I can say many things about Him and His forthcoming passion, but do I really know Him? His passion and death reveal how far He would go to save me.

May my prayer this week be to take a few minutes, ask His help to know Him as my savior and redeemer, based on an often-overlooked fact, that I am in need of Him right now. Jesus I want to know you better.

3 Things Unemployed Professionals Must Know to Overcome Frustration and Fear

It's easy for unemployed professionals to become overwhelmed with feelings of frustration and fear. A period of unemployment or underemployment is one of the scariest and uncertain times people can go through in their lives. While those feelings are understandable, they are also damaging to a job search. Unemployed professionals too often have their career search obstructed by their own disempowering mindset.

In his presentation, Jason Hyde will explain 3 vital things unemployed professionals must understand to dissolve feelings of frustration and fear and replace them with courage, excitement and peace of mind.

Most unemployed professionals subconsciously believe that they will feel better on the inside when their external circumstances change. The truth is that the fastest way to achieve the external changes we want - a wonderful new career - is to make changes on the inside first.

Please join us on Zoom for an informative and interactive session with useful tips you can implement right away.

About our Presenter: Jason Hyde is a financial advisor, as well as the author of the book Career Fulfillment Found and a frequent speaker on the topic of career fulfillment. He uses personal experience and extensive knowledge in the areas of self-improvement and spirituality to help anyone who feels lost and overwhelmed with their career.

RSVP required: To receive a link to attend the Zoom session, RSVP by Monday April 7 to Gretchen Johnson at gbmjohnson@gmail.com

The St. Catherine's Support Circle was formed in early 2009 to support people seeking jobs in the challenging economic environment. The group continues to encourage participation by both job seekers and those interested in providing their advice and support. To read about helpful information and recommended resources for job seekers, visit the parish web site www.stcath.org, then first link to Community Life, and then link to the SCSC page

If you have similar experience, and would be interested in joining your fellow professionals on the committee, please contact SCSC Chairman Bob Sloane at rsloane0@gmail.com

A Powerful Pre-Easter Event

THE PASSION AND DEATH OF JESUS, ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN A WORKSHOP PRESENTED BY Fr. Michael Boccaccio

*Monday of Holy Week (Day after Palm Sunday)
St. Catherine of Siena & St. Agnes Parish*

7:00-8:30PM Lucey Parish Hall

There are four accounts of the passion of Jesus, by the evangelists Mark, Matthew, Luke and John. The narrative usually begins with the Last Supper/Gethsemane and concludes with the burial of Jesus. In the Scriptural liturgical cycle, the passion of Matthew is proclaimed in cycle A, Mark-B and Luke--C on Palm Sunday. However, you'll notice that there is not a cycle for the narrative by John. The reason is that Gospel according to John, chapters 18 and 19, are reserved to be proclaimed on Good Friday, every year.

Before beginning the investigation into John's account, there will be a description of Rome's capital punishment. This would entail a quick review of Jesus' being Scourged, Mocked, Crowned and Crucified. Also of import would be a look at the "politics" that brought about the death of Jesus. In this regard, ever so briefly, reference will be made to what is called the Jesus of History and the Christ of Faith!

Naturally the four accounts have their own particular style, theology and themes. For example, John does not record what is referred to as the Last Supper or the Agony in the Garden. One might ask why? Some of John's unique intentions, words, etc. will be explored, quite superficially. In John's account Jesus is being portrayed as being in charge, and not so much as the victim, as is the case in the other three accounts of the passion of Jesus. Again, one rightly asks "WHY?" Attendees would be encouraged to read the two chapters before attending the gathering.

Copies of both chapters with some words pointed out will be available for the evening,
