Prayer for a Deceased Pope

God, Who, in Thine ineffable providence, didst will that Thy servant Francis... should be numbered among the high priests; grant, we beseech Thee, that he, who on earth held the place of Thine only-begotten Son, may be joined forevermore to the fellowship of Thy holy pontiffs. Through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

Third SUNDAY OF EASTER

"When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread, Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish you just caught.' So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore, full of one hundred fifty three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them: 'Come, have breakfast.' And not one of the disciples dared to ask him, 'who are you', because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish... This was the third time..."

As He fed the multitude, as He invited the disciples today, so we too are invited to the meal He has prepared for us. The descriptive chapter of John's gospel can help us meditate and live the gospel scene. We are at the seashore, perhaps with a gentle breeze and lapping waves. The aroma of frying fish on the barbecue, charcoal fire fills the air. Jesus asks Simon Peter to share some of his catch. Using familiar words, like those at the Eucharist He took the bread and fish, said a blessing and gave it to them. What a breakfast!

Jesus continues to invite us to His meal, the Eucharist. He knows our hunger and need. He provides what will allow to grow in our spiritual lives, yet we unfortunately rush or don't consider what a great gift and privilege to meet Him, not on the lake shore, but in our parish church. Like the disciples we do not ask who are you, for we know who is both our host and guest.

Lectio: Salvation

At every Sunday Mass, Catholics confess that Jesus came down from heaven "for us men and for our salvation." But what does "salvation" mean? In this remarkable 10-part video series, Scripture scholar and theologian Michael Patrick Barber provides a thorough, deeply Catholic, and deeply biblical, answer.
