HELP WITH FORGIVENESS

Message from Our Pastor

If we're honest with ourselves, forgiving others isn't easy. In fact, many people find it extremely difficult. Perhaps some would even say that holding onto anger, a grudge or resentment is the easier and better alternative.

One way in which we can help ourselves forgive others is to examine our own sinfulness. In other words, we can ask ourselves, "What are the areas that I need forgiveness in?" Such areas may include words of love we couldn't bring ourselves to say; visits to parents we should have made but didn't; apologies we withheld or reconciliation we avoided; the comfort or consolation we refused to give; the friendships and relationships we left unattended; the children we neglected; the ethical or moral lapses we were guilty of; our complaining or negative attitude; our gossip and slander of others; the hurtful things I said or did etc...Couldn't the list go on for us all? Aren't we all guilty of many things? Aren't we all sinners? Only when we become aware of our own imperfections, our own need for forgiveness, can we more readily forgive others.

The bottom line is every Sunday we pray God, "Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us." In other words, Jesus will use the standard we use when it comes to forgiving others. With this in mind, shouldn't we seek to forgive others as quickly, deeply, and thoroughly as possible?

God Loves you,

Fr. Dunn

MINISTRY OF HOPE

One of the greatest gifts we can offer another person is our presence. The Parish Partners Ministry of Hope invites you to share Christ's love with our homebound parishioners through visits, prayer, bringing Holy Communion, or providing transportation to Mass.

Just a few hours of your time each month can make a meaningful difference, reminding those who are unable to attend church that they remain a cherished and valued part of our parish family. If you feel called to this ministry of compassion and accompaniment, we would be grateful to welcome you. To learn more or volunteer, please contact Jeannemarie Baker at (203) 637-3661, ext. 375.

MISCARRIAGE & INFANT LOSS

THE PAIN THAT NO ONE TALKS ABOUT

The loss of a baby is a sorrow that can remain quietly in the heart for a lifetime. In the midst of that grief, our faith reminds us that every life, no matter how brief, is precious in the eyes of God and forever held in His love.

Mothers and fathers who have experienced the loss of a baby through miscarriage, stillbirth, or infant loss are warmly invited to a special spiritual retreat led by Fr. Colin Lomnitzer.

Together, we will make space for prayer, remembrance, healing, and the hope that comes from Christ. Whether your loss was recent or many years ago, please know that you and your precious child are held in the prayers and heart of the Church.
