DROP YOUR BURDEN

Words From Our Pastor

When St. Thomas Moore defied his King and was thrown into prison, one of Aesop's Fables came to his mind. In it, the god Jupiter had invited "all the poor worms of the earth for a solemn feast." Every worm came except the snail. When asked why he was absent, the snail replied that he loved no place as much as his own house. This angered Jupiter and so he decreed that the snail should carry his house on his back, to which St. Thomas Moore added, "and he has done so ever since, so they say."

Thomas Moore compared the snail to Christians who, "by foolish affection which they have set upon their houses here on earth, cannot for the dread of leaving that house, find it in their hearts to go with good will to the great feast that God prepares in heaven and so graciously calls them to."

God has sent us all an invitation to the Kingdom of Heaven- an eternal celebration where we will experience the fullness of peace and joy. It's hard to imagine anyone ignoring or rejecting this invitation, but God leaves the choice totally up to us. We must respond now, here on earth, by living a life of repentance, prayer, charity, and service.

God Loves you.

Fr. Dunn

PROBLEM with our Bells

A couple years ago, we installed a used bell system that was taken from a Church that closed. We've been experiencing issues with the system, namely, the bells often sound funny and out of tune (perhaps you've noticed this yourself). Through research, I've found out that this bell system is very old and the manufacturer of this system went out of business 12 years ago.

Thus, there is no one to call to attempt to fix the system. I called another bells company to see if they would fix it, however since it's not their product and they have many different components, they concluded that our only option is to purchase a new system. This new system not only will sound much better, but it will have far greater abilities. Unfortunately, a new system is quite expensive- $12,000 for a new system, and if we need speakers as well, another $4,500.

If you would like to donate and help us purchase this new system, please contact me directly, Fr. Dunn frdunn@diobpt.org, or call (203) 637-3661, ext. 324.
