More PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEW DAY BEREAVEMENT STARTS MARCH 5th

In the Rite of Christian Burial, we hear the priest celebrant pray the words “Lord, for your faithful people, life has changed not ended.” And upon hearing that one might think that he is referring, most obviously, to the deceased. But if you pay attention to his exact words ...for your faithful people... you realize he is including all of us whom the deceased has left behind.

The hope and goal of the New Day Bereavement Ministry is to remind us that we need not go through our grief alone, that a group of trained facilitators are available within our own parish as well as throughout the diocese to help support and buoy us up in our sadness.

New Day is a faith-based bereavement ministry that meets for 9 consecutive weeks to discuss a curated array of topics designed to help you journey through the grief of whatever loss you may be facing, both recent or even in the distant past.

If you, or someone you know, is struggling with the loss of a loved one, then please consider registering for the New Day Bereavement program scheduled to begin in early March through late April. The cost is free and you need not be a member of the Parish of St. Catherine and St. Agnes or even Catholic, you just need to be registered. If interested, please contact Parish Partners at (203) 637-3661—ext 375.

TICKETS ARE NOW ON SALE!

Everyone must have a ticket, regardless of age. St. Catherine's Players welcomes adults with children who can sit quietly throughout the entire performance.

Beauty and the Beast is St. Catherine's Players 43rd production. Lauren Nicole Sherwood will direct and provide musical staging, Zachary Kampler will provide music direction and conduct the orchestra, and Matthew Blank will choreograph.

Catholic Social Teaching

There are seven themes of Catholic Social Teaching. The Social Justice Committee will present one theme each month. They provide a framework through which to understand modern Catholic Social Teaching and a guide to living our lives amidst the challenges of modern society.

This month's theme: Rights and Responsibilities

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities--to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

Join your fellow parishioners and celebrate our shared community at St. Catherine's Lucey Parish Hall!

Whole 40: Making a Spiritual Plan for Lent

Sit down with Dr. Ben Akers and Dr. Elizabeth Klein to discuss the purpose of the season of Lent, how to prepare for it, and why it is such a fruitful season in our life of faith.

The Story of Death | Eternal Rest | Episode 1

Where did death come from? What does death mean for the human person? Is it simply just part of life, or is it something else? In this first session, we discuss the story of death and God's response to it: defeating death by dying and rising from the dead.

Emmaus Retreat

A Collaboration with St. Michael Parish

MEN'S EMMAUS VIII
Friday March 8th 2024
Sunday March 10th, 2024

Emmaus is a weekend long Retreat where laymen gather to experience the love of God and to grow their faith and their spiritual life. The structure of this Retreat is based on the account in the Gospel of Luke (24:13-35) where two disciples encounter our Risen Christ on the road to Emmaus.

Like those disciples who were transformed in a profound manner, we can become so wrapped up in our own feelings that we do not realize that it is Jesus who is accompanying us as we journey in this life while on earth.

Participants, referred to as “walking disciples”, renew and strengthen their relationship with Jesus Christ in a unique way. The weekend is enveloped in prayer and grace-filled times of worship, singing, and the celebration of the Mass and Sacraments.

You will have the opportunity to meet and build relationships with others with whom to share your journey towards Heaven!

LOCATION

Don Bosco Retreat Center
174 Filors Ln, Stony Point, NY

ROOM & BOARD:

The cost of the weekend is $350. This includes a private single room with bathroom and all meals.

CHECK IN:

Registration will start at 6:15 pm on Friday March 8th

RETREAT CLOSING:

It will conclude on Sunday 10th at 5:00 pm with Mass. Family and friends are invited to attend!
